This means You must:

- (a) disclose all material facts of which You know or ought to know.
- (b) make the disclosure in a reasonably clear and accessible way.
- (c) make sure that every material representation of fact is substantially correct and made in good faith.

What is a Material Fact?

A material fact is information that would influence Our decision as to whether to insure You and, if so, on what terms.

For the purposes of the duty of fair presentation, You are expected to know the following:

(a) if You are an individual (such as a sole trader or individual partner):

- what is known to You and anybody who is responsible for arranging this insurance, or if You are not an individual (such as a limited company or partnership):
- what is known to anybody who is part of Your organisation's senior management (this means those people who play significant roles in the making of decisions about how Your activities are to be managed or organised or anybody who is responsible for arranging this insurance.

(b) what should reasonably be revealed by a reasonable search of the information available to You. The information may be held within Your organisation (including, but not limited to, subsidiaries, affiliates, the broker or any other person who will be covered under this insurance.

If the insurance is intended to insure subsidiaries, affiliates, or other parties, You are expected to have included them in Your enquiries and inform Us if You have not done so. The reasonable search may be conducted by making enquiries or by any other means.

Breach of duty

If You breach Your duty or make fair presentation of the risk to Us, then:

- where the breach was deliberate or reckless, We may avoid this policy, refuse all claims and keep all premium paid.
- where the breach was neither deliberate nor reckless and, but for the breach, We would not have agreed to provide cover under the policy on any terms, We may avoid this policy and refuse all claims, but We will return any premium paid.
- where the breach was neither deliberate nor reckless and, but for the breach, We would have agreed to provide cover under this policy but on different terms (other than premium terms), We may require that this policy includes such different terms with effect from its commencement, and/or
- where the breach was neither deliberate nor reckless and, but for the breach, We would have agreed to provide cover under this policy but would have charged higher premiums, Our liability for any loss amount payable shall be limited to the proportion that the premium We charged bears to the higher premium that We would have charged.

For example: if, due to a breach of fair presentation, We charged a premium of £1,000 but We should have charged £2,000, then for any claim submitted and agreed at a settlement value of £500, You will only be paid £250.
